

YARD TIP OF THE MONTH

You may have noticed areas in yards that are looking yellow. This is a condition called iron chlorosis which is caused by a neutral ph or an overabundance of phosphorus. Increased rainfall is a likely culprit of neutral ph. A soil acidified can correct the problem and can be locally applied to those yellowing spots.

Yellow Spots on Grass

---